HECK! CLAREMORE WON'T ATTEMPT A REFUELING FLIGHT

(Special To The News)
BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., July 25.—Here is some news that I think will be of interest at this time to the entire world.

Claremore, Okla., will not attempt to break the record. There is a city that always strives to be original.

We read a lot about the kind of planes they are in, what gas they use, what cigarettes they smoke. But nobody has ever said what kind of hose they use to get the gas from one plane to another.

It's time somebody spoke a word for hose.

Mr. Hoover says we are spending too much on military expenses, and is appointing a commission to investigate it. Their salaries will be added to the cost.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

PA NEW OBSERVES

Pa. News noticed a young "yellowhammer" or "flicker" flitting about on the Mercer street hill this morning. It had evidently been frightened from its nest by the storm last night. It screamed shrilly, when attempts were made to pick it up.

S. C. Teece possesses a unique coin in the shape of a counterfeit copper penny bearing the date of 1863. On the back of the coin in perfect lettering is the inscription "Not One Cent." He has had the piece in his possession for some time.

The heat has finally proven too much for members of the Booster Club and they are going to take a vacation during the month of August, but plan to redouble their efforts during September.

Pa. News does not know whether employees read his mind or not, but at any rate, the scraper which he noticed progressing up Mercer street yesterday morning, stopped on West Park avenue and began the task of leveling off some of the bumps for which the street is famous. Many thanks!

Some of the excessive heat of the past few days was broken by a cooling shower during the night. It was also badly needed to help the roasting ears along, as the fields have become quite dry.

Pa. News wonders just how many persons of this city are away on vacation. Milk men and paper boys, the chaps who have a very close tag on such things, report an overwhelming number on tour or vacation at the present time.

Ditches along the New Castle-Youngstown highway, in the vicinity of the Parkstown corners are being dug and drains are being installed. The section where the improvement is being made is well protected by warning flags and lights.

Ten Tentative Jurors Named In Dr. Snook Trial

Matter Of Selecting Jury To Try Professor-Slayer Is Tedious Job

SEX SUBJECTS ARE BROUGHT UP

Trial May Be Fought Along Lines Of Dope And Sex Is Indication

COURT ROOM, COLUMBUS, O., July 25.—Sex subjects and "experiments with drugs to determine the human reaction" will be delved into at the trial of Dr. James H. Snook, 49-year-old college professor, for the murder of Miss Theora Hix, 25-year-old co-ed, it was indicated in court today.

In questioning Elliott P. Rexford, the eighth juror to be tentatively accepted for the jury, Defense Attorney John F. Seidel said:

"Would the fact that Dr. Snook and Miss Hix had experimented with doses of drugs by administering them to see the human reaction, influence you for or against this defendant?"

"No," replied Rexford, who is a graduate of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Sex subjects and the intimate relations between Dr. Snook and his co-ed paramour will also be aired, Attorney Seidel further indicated.

"If it develops," said Seidel, "that the question of sex and the subject of illicit relations are delved into would the fact that this is a mixed jury of men and women cause you any embarrassment or prevent you discussing the case fully in the jury room?"

"No, it would not," Rexford replied. Seidel intimated that it would be (Continued On Page Two)

Farrell Youth Slays Father

Father Was Beating His Mother Says Youth Confessing Crime To Police

FOUR SHOTS FIRED, ALL TAKE EFFECT

(International News Service)
FARRELL, Pa., July 25.—When his father refused to quit beating his mother, Matthew Latnich, 19, shot and killed his father, Peter, 45 today, the youth was said to have admitted to police.

The father, apparently intoxicated, had hit his mother many times, according to the alleged confession, and had refused to stop when the boy intervened. Matthew, who is slightly lame in his right leg, secured a .22 caliber revolver and fired four shots at the man, police said. All the shots took effect.

The boy was being held for further action, in the jail here.

"All's Well." To the scouts, friends, parents, and everyone in general, a radiogram from somewhere in the Atlantic to New Castle, slipped through the air on Wednesday evening.

Naval Reduction, Not Limitation Brought Nearer

President Hoover And Ramsay MacDonald Agree To Hold Up Cruiser Building

HOOVER SEEKING BIG REDUCTIONS

Congress Fairly Bristles At Thoughts Of Anything But Naval Parity

By GEORGE R. HOLMES

WASHINGTON, July 25.—Actual reduction and not merely limitation—of the world's naval armament appeared appreciably nearer today as a result of the informal agreement between President Hoover and Premier Ramsay MacDonald to hold up cruiser building on both sides of the Atlantic for this year at least.

Such has been President Hoover's aim from the outset of his administration. The Washington conference eight years ago limited naval armament. President Hoover hopes to carry this a long step further by radically reducing it.

Must Sacrifice If successful, this must ultimately mean that Great Britain will have to relinquish a great many more of her cruisers than the paper ones which MacDonald sacrificed yesterday for Britain's cruiser preponderance is overwhelming, and both London and Washington have agreed on the principle of naval parity between the two nations.

If the principle of parity is maintained (Continued On Page Two)

Pope Plans To Leave Vatican For First Time

Voluntary Exile Of Popes For Past Sixty Years Will End Today

250,000 WILL WITNESS EVENT

By GUGLIELMO EMANUEL
International News Service Staff Correspondent
VATICAN CITY, July 25.—Voluntary exile of the Catholic popes, endured since 1870 in the magnificent palaces because of the breach between the church and the Italian State, ends today with the departure of Pope Pius XI from the Vatican confines.

It is the first time in nearly 60 years that a pontiff has set foot outside of St. Peter's. This was made possible by the Lateran treaties, settling the long standing conflict between the Vatican and the Quirinal.

In order to avoid the mid-summer sunshine the ceremonies will not start until this evening, or early afternoon, American eastern standard time.

After being carried through St. Peter's square upon a podium, or platform with a kneeling stool, the pontiff will be conveyed to a temporary altar upon the steps of St. Peter's where he will give the benediction of the blessed sacrament and the papal blessing "Urbi et Orbi" of the city and the world—to the enormous multitude assembled in the piazza Rusticucci.

The police and military authorities took precautions to handle more than 250,000 persons—men and women—catholics and protestants—from all parts of the world.

CRAZED CLEVELAND DRIVER SHOOTS WIFE IN HIS CAR; AND WOUNDS TWO OTHERS

Triple Crime Takes Place Along Youngstown Road Near Parkstown Corners Shortly Before Noon Hour — Wife, Shot Four Times, Dies Enroute to Hospital — Man Wielding Gun Is John D. Seevers, 38, of Cleveland, O.

(BULLETIN, 2:30 P. M.)

At two-thirty this afternoon Mrs. Catherine Rodgers died in the Shenango Valley hospital.

Apparently crazed, possibly from drink, Dewey Seevers of 7310 Cedar street, Cleveland, O., today shot and killed his wife, Mrs. Stella Seevers, badly wounded Mrs. Catherine Rodgers of the same address, shot 10-year-old Walter Rogers through the shoulder, wrecked his Packard automobile and badly injured his father, John Seevers.

The atrocious crime happened about 11:30 this morning near Parkstown Corners on the Youngstown road. Seevers and his wife and father and the Rogers woman and her son were on their way from Cleveland, O., to New Kensington, Pa., to visit another son of Mrs. Rogers. Of all the occupants of the car the 10-year-old boy tells the most coherent story.

Had Liquor in Car "We were on our way from Cleveland," he said as he lay on his bed in the Shenango Valley hospital. "Mr. Seevers had a bottle of liquor with him and he drank from it at various times."

"He had been arguing with his wife, and as we got near the Beechwood Inn he turned around and hit her over the head with the gun. She and mother and I were in the back seat and Mr. Seevers and his father were in the front seat."

"Mrs. Seevers and mother and I got out and went into Beechwood Inn and Mrs. Seevers wiped off her head. Mr. Seevers came back after a while and we went on. As we got down near the turn (Parkstown Corners) Mr. Seevers leaned back again and started to shoot. As he did so the automobile went out of control and we crashed into a ditch."

Then Began Shooting "As the car fell into the ditch Mr. Seevers started shooting and shot his wife and my mother and me. He and his wife had been fighting before."

John Seevers, father, professes to know little about the crime. "When the car hit the ditch I was rendered unconscious," he said. He admitted to the state officers that they had had a pint of Canadian liquor in the car and that both he and his son had been drinking.

Wife Dead When Brought In Mrs. Seevers was badly shot up. Bullets entered her throat and went on up into her head. She was dead when brought into the hospital.

Mrs. Rogers is in a precarious condition. Her neck and shoulders are badly perforated with bullet holes and at noon physicians were working over her. X-rays were taken of her and physicians did not care to hazard any opinion as to what the outcome would be.

John Seevers was cut and bruised about the head when the car hit the ditch, while the 10-year-old lad is shot in the right shoulder.

Trouble Starts. The trouble evidently started at the Beechwood Inn, where the party stopped and engaged in a quarrel, according to Mrs. Catherine Rodgers, wife of the proprietor of the Beechwood.

Seevers was having a violent quarrel with his wife and Mrs. Rodgers. Finally Seevers pulled out his revolver and beat his wife over the head with the butt end of the pistol, inflicting a number of severe wounds. He then left the scene, while Mr. and Mrs. Hess took Mrs. Seevers into the house and attempted to bind up her wounds. In the meantime, they called the state police at New Castle and reported what had happened, and also tried to secure medical attention for the injured woman.

Seevers came back shortly afterwards, and smashed in the door of the Beechwood Inn with the butt of his pistol. He threatened to kill Mr. and Mrs. Hess and all the members of his party, raving and cursing alternately. Mrs. Hess said. He said he would kill Mr. and Mrs. Hess if they attempted to call the police or a doctor to help, and kept saying that he was going to kill everybody in the party. "I'm in bad now and I don't care what happens," he said.

Domestic Trouble. Seevers then sat down in the room and kept menacing members of his own party and Mr. and Mrs. Hess with his gun. He told them that his wife had caused him all kinds of trouble in the last two years and was going to finish it for all time.

Mrs. Catherine Rodgers told Mr. and Mrs. Hess while he was absent that he had caused his wife all kinds of trouble. "No one will ever know what that woman has been through in the last four years," she stated.

Finally, Mrs. Seevers, apparently realizing that her husband was crazed told him to get back into the car and she would go with him. The party then got back into the machine and drove off.

Mr. Hess, fearing that Seevers would carry out his threat to shoot them all, secured his own gun, and loading it, started in pursuit. He had neglected to secure the license number of the car and was unable to trace them along the road.

LONDON, July 25.—Definite assurances were received in quarters close to the government this afternoon that Soviet Russia and China are ready to settle their differences through direct negotiations.

There are still stubborn diplomatic tangles to be unsnarled before decisive steps are undertaken to solve the problem.

shown Dr. Snook and Miss Hix were intimate on the night of the crime. The spectators laughed when Rexford asked what part of the newspapers he reads, said:

"The funny pictures and the headlines."

Attorney Seidel further indicated that it would be contended Miss Hix administered drugs to Snook "on the night of the crime."

In questioning Louis C. Davis, the ninth juror tentatively accepted, Seidel said:

"Would you be prejudiced against this defendant if it were shown they took drugs together and that she administered drugs to him on the night of the crime?"

"I would not," Davis replied.

Mrs. Albert Brooks, a housewife, was the tenth juror tentatively selected. When she took her seat in the jury box the forces were divided equally, five women and five men.

Mrs. W. W. Warnock of Erie, has concluded a visit here with her sisters Miss Laura Warnock of Milton street and Mrs. M. H. Vance of Pine street.

of the excessive amount of tar which was placed on the street by the city. During the extremely hot weather the tar has gathered in huge balks on the street, and motorists and pedestrians have tracked the sticky fluid over a wide amount of territory.

Two married men, whose wives are away on a lengthy vacation, are having a fine time of it if you can call it that. Each night they make their tour of the park, the various streets, stroll down town, perhaps go to a show, and while away the evening hours. Despite apparent devil-may-carelessness they are as lonesome as two pairs of high shoes at a formal dance.

Pa News notes with much gratification, as do all others who travel the street, that North Beaver between Washington and North has had those deep ruts repaired.

Speaking of streets, the grade crossing of the various railroads in town are in pretty fair shape all around. For awhile, going over some of these crossings was much like a stormy night on the Baltic.

The Neshannock river, north of the East Washington street bridge is dry except for a channel which flows in the middle. Persons who now toss rubbish in the stream have a sure invitation for arrest if sanitary policemen are on the job.

Although citizens are to vote on a bond issue of $1,250,000, there is scarcely any talk of the city's intent to feel the pulse of the people. The money councilmen say will be spent for streets, sewers and playgrounds during the next five years.

As yet no one has been named to head the department of sewer cleaning. It is said that difficulty is being had in securing a capable man. If one is secured it is said the sewer cleaning crew will be removed from the jurisdiction of the street commissioner.

New track is being laid by the Pennsylvania-Ohio railway company on the west end of the Public square. Last night motorists were faced with a multitude of red lights which goes to show that corporations take safety precautions.

Evidently no action has occurred in Laurel boulevard, near Moody, as the section which was to be converted into a park has weeds two feet high. The residents in that section not long ago referred to it as a weed farm.

State Highway policemen's declaration that they will arrest all motorists who park on the south side of East Washington street extension will bear fruit. It is a dangerous place and several near accidents have occurred there as the result of parking.

While double parking is still evident in downtown streets another traffic menace has cropped up. Some trucks in discharging contents park in such a manner that the rear of their bodies protrude across an intersection street.

There is some talk of abandoning the playground at McCleary avenue for the balance of the season, owing to the lack of attendance. A conference is scheduled, it is reported between city officials and councilmen.

Junior B boys who have gone to the U. M. C. A. camp along the Slippery Rock in the vicinity of Harlansburg are being put through a nature course study by Bill Thomas and Henry McNicholas. The boys are rambling through the woods and enjoying the course.

Some idea of the amount of traffic over the detour from Highland avenue to the Wilmington road can be gained from the fact that the road, which was heavily oiled but a few weeks ago, is again dusty, and pitted with small ruts. It would require almost continual oiling to keep this dirt road in good shape. It is estimated that some thousands of cars travel this road daily. It will certainly be a relief when the New Castle to Walpole stretch of repaving is completed.

Hedge trimmers have been at work about the city for some time, and most of the hedge fences now look neat and nice. There are hedges on some properties at corners of important streets in this city that Pa News would designate as menaces to traffic safety, and they should be put down some.

Wheat threshing has been started on some of the farms in this district. Most all of the wheat fields have now been cut, also.

Building expansion is gradually taking over the vacant lots in many sections of the city where the children of the community were accustomed to gather to play. The latest spot of this nature is on Albert street in the northern part of the city. A nicely dug cellar announces that the playground site is gone forever.

Hydrangeas are in bloom, thousands of the flowers being noted on properties about the city.

A little civic pride on the part of owners of two properties along Highland avenue, one of the principal and main travelled thoroughfares of the city wouldn't hurt the appearance of the street any. These are located at the northwest corner of Leisure and Highland and at the North east corner of Highland and Winter, Pa. News is informed.

The man with the scythe has been busy for several days in Berger's woods, and a great improvement has been wrought. Weed cutting could be inaugurated in other parts of the city with much benefit.

Stirring Sermon At Tent Meeting

Soviet Political Police Execute Sixteen White Guards For Crossing Border

WERE REMNANTS OF CZARIST MILITARY

By EDWARD L. DEUSS
International News Service Staff

MOSCOW, July 25.—Apparently determined to wipe out the White Russian menace at any cost, the OGPU, or Soviet political police, has court-martialed and executed sixteen members of the Russian White Guard, on charges of conspiring against the Soviet state. It was learned today.

The victims, all remnants of the Czarist military, were accused of crossing the Manchurian frontier into Siberia in the Zabaikalsky district on July 22, and attempting to blow up a section of the trans-Siberian railway, as well as to bomb various Soviet munitions depots and bridges.

Heavily Armed
The OGPU charges the White Guards crossed the border heavily armed and equipped with large supplies of bombs and hand grenades. All these executed were former officers of the Kolchak and Semenov White Guard armies.

Three ring-leaders of the raiders, under the notorious White Guard leader Nazarov, have taken refuge against the raids.

In addition to the band tried and executed, another group of White Russians has also been taken into custody, but their fate has not yet been decided upon.

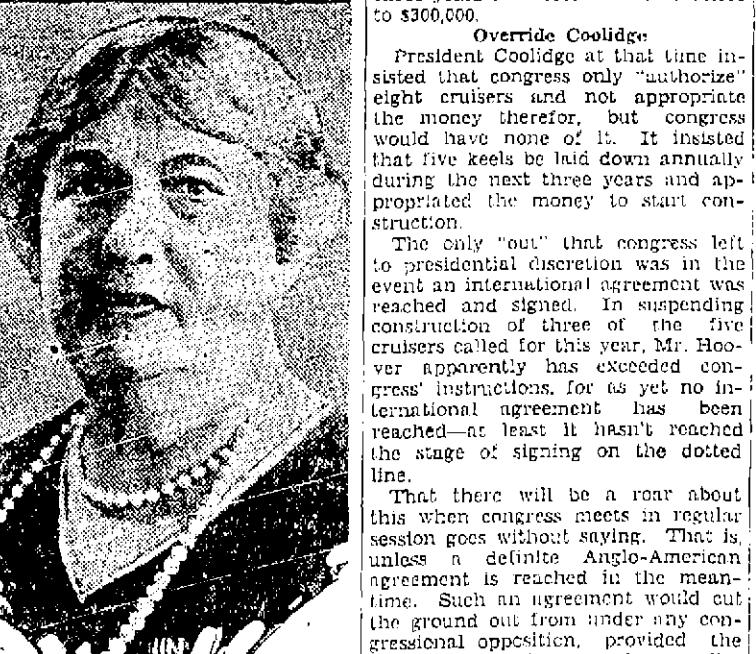

Wide publicity has been given to the executions by the Russian newspapers in view of the present dispute with China. It is believed the Soviet government is anxious to show as strongly as possible the extent of county-revolutionary activities by the White Russian troops in Manchuria.

The OGPU's allegation that Chinese Nationalists have been instrumental in instigating the raids is supported in official Soviet circles in retaliation for Chinese accusations of subversive activity by Russian agents in Manchuria.

to support his request that the remainder of his sentence be abated. Petition Presented.

The petition signed by the 500 depositors in Bell's financial ventures merely set forth that inasmuch as he had fulfilled the minimum requirements of his sentence, and since his health was failing rapidly, Bell requested a parole.

Affairs of the ex-banker have been prominent in courts here ever since his incarceration, and recently his attorneys announced he was penniless and unable to pay his hospital bills.

"My client hasn't one cent to rub against another," Eaton said today, of the man who once was rated as possessor of a fortune of more than $10,000,000.

Bell has suffered two paralytic strokes since he was sentenced. His wife died recently.

There are lots of people who can't stand prosperity, especially the prosperity of others.

Eczema Caused Disfigurement and Loss of Sleep. Cuticura Healed.

"I was troubled with eczema which broke out in pimples and a rash. My skin was very rough and scaly. After a time the scales fell off, leaving a sore surface upon which the scales formed again. It caused disfigurement, also itching, burning and loss of sleep."

I tried different remedies but instead of getting better it got worse. I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample. I got relief almost immediately. I purchased more and in five weeks I was completely healed." (Signed) George E. Corbett, Jr., 5232 Lyde St., Hazelwood Sta., Pa., March 20, 1929.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

by that time communism will have achieved such success that they cannot prevent their own workers from rising up in emulation of the proletariat of Russia and overthrowing capitalism, the world over! I am told that the communists confidently expect a world upheaval to come soon, in which the workers will seize upon their opportunity to establish the dictatorship of the proletariat. Leon Trotsky was still talking here a few weeks ago about the impending world revolution.

Because the Bolsheviks are expecting to be attacked soon, they are preparing a gigantic defense program. They are also urging that communists "cells" as the local units are called, in every country be prepared to rise up when Russia is attacked, and come to the support of their comrades. These Bolsheviks know that they got their only chance when the world war gave the workers and peasants armed, and brought them together where they could be easily propagandized and incited to revolt. And so they are looking to another war to give them the chance to spread communism. For communism thrives on first of all.

turmoil and conflict. So the militarists are the hope of the communists. The pacifists they regard as their worst enemies. For the pacifists are working for a world understanding and peace which balk the designs of communism.

The Red army is surely a close approximation to the real thing. The Red soldiers are strapping fellows, well trained and equipped, and possessed of a fanatical zeal for the communist cause. They would fight desperately if Russia were to be invaded by God help any nation that should be so rash as to try to invade and subdue these peoples. As the Germans used to say, it would be like invading a feather bed. On the other hand, I do not believe that the Soviet government would ever risk starting a war of aggression. It will be a long time before Russia's industrial and transportation system could be mobilized to furnish an adequate support for a great army far away from its base.

Spray Worms To Insure Cabbage Crop Says Agent

County Agent McCulloch Says Cabbage Green Worm Easy To Control

Damage to early cabbage already has been done by the green cabbage worm, and within a short time this insect will begin to ravage the late varieties.

According to County Agent H. R. McCulloch, the cabbage green worm is comparatively easy to control. If poison is applied to the plants before the heads are formed and as often as necessary later to keep the worms from boring into heads.

Either spraying or dusting is efficient. For dusting use one pound of arsenate of lead and nine pounds of hydrated lime; for spraying the combination is two pounds of arsenate of lead and one pound of soap in 50 gallons of water. If some other sticker is available it may answer the purpose of the soap in the mixture. It is necessary to have some form of sticker, says McCulloch, to make the material adhere to the leaves.

Where efficient hand dusters are available it is possible to cover the foliage effectively and secure maximum control. Dust applications should be made after rain if the worms are very abundant. Whether dust or spray is used, applications should be made before the cabbages are severely damaged to get the best results.

Scouts Hike To State Game Farm

Many Activities At Boy Scout Camp; Nicholas Cassillo Speaks

This morning nine boys moved into new quarters for a few days to live as nearly the life of the American Indian as is possible in this day and age. These boys during the first three days of the period have maintained the highest point average in the camp of 90 boys. Chief White Bear, Perry L. Ober, will instruct the boys in Indian lore, games and handicraft and upon their arrival in the village will give to each boy an Indian name. The villagers are Harold Aggas, Ed Field, Walter Grommes, Clarence McDaniels, Bill Nunn, Bill Offutt, Clayton Willard, George Thorne and Bill Wimer.

The entire camp hiked as a group to the game farm Wednesday evening for a look at the many species of birds and beasts that are quartered there. Upon their return to camp after dark they were greeted by a roaring campfire and were entertained for more than an hour by Nicholas E. Cassillo, who told the boys the story of Dracula. Mr. Cassillo, who is now recreation director of the city of New Castle, was formerly one of the directors of Camp Phillips.

High point scorer Wednesday was Ed Fields with 235 points. Henry Duey was second with 188 points. Inspection winners today were Burton O'Neill, Herbie Saul, Bill Steen, Blair Feltz, George Thorne, and Bill Bush, members of the Dan Boone stockade, Hut Volant.

A special period for non-swimmers was held Wednesday afternoon by Swimming Instructor Harry Ziegler. All of the boys in the class are reported as making rapid progress. Jimmie Higgins and Jack Higgins are two of the group who have passed the beginners' test since their arrival in camp.

Color guards for the evening were Clarence McDaniels, William Bush and Herb Saul. Nine scouts were awarded to the boys. Wayseekers were Hornby, Thorne, Felscher, Oslendort, Fields, Mason, Duey, Grommes and Russell Riley; the Pathfinder scout was awarded to Burdell Riley.

Tests passed today included the following: Merit badges: athletics, Bill Woodworth; craftsmanship in leather, Harold Aggas; second class first aid, Bill Leicht; observation, George Thorne, Clayton Willard, Conrad Mook, Woodrow Clark, Clarence McDaniels and Herb Saul; safety, Woodrow Brown and Bob Duey.

Mayor Mackey Plays Traffic Patrolman

Philadelphia Mayor Directs Traffic At Busy Street Intersection

(International News Service) PHILADELPHIA, July 25.—Mayor Mackey today took the reins of executive as well as judicial procedure here recently when, much in the manner of Napoleon who took up a sleeping sentry's musket and walked a lonely post, the mayor assumed the role of a traffic patrolman at the busy intersection of 15th and Chestnut streets when he found the traffic policeman missing from the intersection.

Mayor Mackey's action was prompted when a "filver" swerved suddenly out of 15th street into Chestnut, continuing blithely on its way after nearly running down the chief magistrate. Mayor Mackey then looked about for a traffic officer, and saw there was none and that vehicles and pedestrians were enthusiastically turning themselves into a hopeless snarl.

After telephoning police headquarters, the mayor walked to the center of the intersection and waved north-south and west-east traffic on his course.

Patrolman Ernest Hummel, of the traffic squad, arrived a few minutes later. He had, he said, "stepped away for a minute to get a drink of water." Mayor Mackey spoke earnestly to Hummel for a brief few moments and then departed.

The run was finally brought to an end not by any deficiency in the car itself but by a terrific storm which strewed the track of the Indianapolis Speedway with wreckage. Holmesburg Prison Rocked By Scandal

Member Of Board Of Prison Inspectors Allows Hoff
To Visit Al Capone

Thorough Probe Of Lax Prison Rules Will Be Made; Hoff Denies Allegations

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, July 25.—The gloomy Holmesburg county prison
now the home of "Scarface" Al Capone, was shaken to its foundations today by another prison scandal that threatens to rival the furor created by the revelations of the brutal treatment of the inmates a few months ago.

The latest sensation was caused by the discovery that a member of the board of prison inspectors had taken several visitors to see the notorious Chicago racket king, who is serving a 12-month term for carrying concealed deadly weapons. One of Capone's visitors was none other than Max "Boo Boo" Hoff, diminutive boxing promoter, once termed the king of the city's bootleggers by District Attorney John Morgan.

Probe Is Planned
A thorough investigation of the lax prison regulations by the board of judges was forecast today as a result of the disclosures.

The reunion between Hoff and Capone is said to have been sanctioned by Horace P. Conrad, a new member of the reorganized prison board. Conrad denies having taken Hoff to see the Chicago racketeer, however, but admitted having given a pass for visitors to see Capone at the request of Congressman Benjamin M. Golder and Cornelius Harrarty Jr., attorneys for Capone.

Three times in all Conrad is reported to have taken visitors to see the Chicagoan. Hoff being present on the third trip. The "guests" were allowed to chat with Capone in the prison office alone for from 15 to 30 minutes contrary to prison rules.

Hoff in turn denies that he has seen Capone since he began his term.

The capable executive is one who selects the right man for the job and then holds him responsible.

Crazed Cleveland Driver Shoots Wife, Wounds Others

a number of people along the road and threatened them. He forced the driver of a Youngstown truck off the road, and when the latter remonstrated with him about the matter, struck the man over the head with the butt end of the pistol, it is reported.

At another point, he is said to have stopped a telephone lineman and also threatened to shoot him.

Mr. and Mrs. Hess were of the opinion that the party had all been drinking.

From what Mr. and Mrs. Hess were able to pick up from their conversation, they had been quarrelling all along the way. They told them that they had come from Cleveland and were on their way to Pittsburgh. Mrs.
Rogers and her little son have been residing with the Seever's family, and the quarrel seemed to center about them, from what Mr. and Mrs. Hess were able to gather from the conversation while they were at the Beechwood Inn.

Police In Pursuit.
State Policeman Jimmy Brooks and Lieutenant of B. R. & P. Police Bert Baughman, Punxsutawney, were at state police headquarters when the call came for aid from Beechwood Inn.
Corporal Ketran of the state highway police also was present.

Brooks and Baughman leaped into an automobile and Ketran mounted his motorcycle. They were searching for a yellow Packard. Ohio license 66-687. Brooks and Baughman sped along the road with Ketran speeding on his motorcycle.

The machines whirled along the Youngstown road to the top of the Harbor bridge hill. Coming down they noticed the car coming. Brooks signalled Ketran to turn. His motorcycle upset and he was bruised when he fell.

The two women were alive and sitting in the back of the car according to Brooks. They sped after the Packard in the direction of New Castle and at that time the shooting had not taken place. The Packard was chased until it reached a short distance between the airport and the Park-town corners.

Shooting Occurs.
There the car ran into the ditch.
The shooting took place. Stella Seever, wife of John, was shot and died later. Mrs. Katherine Rogers, companion, was also shot and is now reported dying. An 11-year-old son of Mrs. Rogers was shot in the shoulder and arm. Seever's father, was not shot but was knocked unconscious when the car hit the ditch.

Brooks leaped from the police automobile as did Baughman. Brooks grabbed Seever by the neck as he was in the front seat. Baughman grabbed the revolver which was still hot from the discharge of the bullets.

Overpower Seever
The police dragged Seever from the Packard and overpowered him. He is a 200 pound man. They snapped handcuffs on his wrists. He was shot through the hand, he claims by his wife when he attempted to seize the gun as he alleges she tried to shoot him.

W. E. Dunnett, 3225 Market street, Youngstown, salesman accompanied by O. L. Smith, 31 Dickey street, Warren, came along in a car. They took the two women, the Rogers boy and the elder Mr. Seever to the Shenango Valley hospital.

Policeman Brooks and Baughman forced Seever into their automobile and Brooks drove while Baughman kept a close watch on Seever. He was brought to the State Police headquarters which are located in the Colonial hotel.

According to Lieutenant of Police Baughman of the B. R. & P. at Punxsutawney, Seever first words to him were: "Yes, dam it, I killed them both."

Had Been Drinking Seever told the police that he has been drinking for six weeks. He said also that he is afflicted with an incurable disease and that before the party left home this morning that he and his wife had a quarrel.

"I coaxed her and said 'Please come.' Seever stated that he had had his father go to Mrs. Seever. He also said they all had been drinking before leaving Cleveland. He declared he is a piano and realty salesman and bootlegs in a short way.

He was asked where he got the gun and he replied that he had bought it two months ago in Sharon. He paid $28.50 for the revolver. "I can take you to the place" he informed the inspectors.

"What did you want the gun for?"
he was asked.

"Because I am quite a marksman.
I like to go in the country and shoot.
I also got it for protection. I was raised below Marietta, O. I like a gun and love it. I hunt big game, deers and also rabbits and everything."

His hand was covered with blood.
A handkerchief was tied around his wrist. Handcuffs still enmeshed his wrists.

"How did you get the gun?" he was asked.

"My wife had the gun. She tried to shoot me. I grabbed it and she shot me."

"What did you do then?" he was asked.

"I don't know. I'll take the blame.
I'm ready to go."

He was then questioned as to when he left Cleveland.

Seever said they left at 11 a. m.
this morning. (This couldn't be as they would have had to ride from Cleveland to the murder scene in one hour's time.)

He said that the party was enroute to New Kensington. He said he (probably Mrs. Seever's) people live at New Kensington. "I was driving.
My wife was in the back of the car."

"She started to quarrel at home."
He said he had to coax her to come along and said "Please come." Seever said he had his father request her to make the trip. He said they had all been drinking.

"Have you had any trouble with your wife?"

"I won't say if she is still living."
He said he had been drunk for six weeks.

He said his wife is named Stella and the other woman is Mrs. Katherine Rodgers and the boy her son.

Seever said Mrs. Rodgers has been staying with them.

Had Malaria.
Seever told the police that he has had incurable malaria for 18 years and that he has laid in a hospital for months. He also had malaria, he declared. He told police "I shot the both of them." Evidently the boy was shot accidentally. The father was not wounded.

When the prisoner was first rushed to the state police rooms he refused to answer questions.

He was in a highly nervous state, incoherent at times and appeared to have been drinking.

Seever said several times he was ready for the "electric chair."

He refused to tell the name of the woman with his wife. He wanted to know how the boy was and when told that he was all right acted as though he was pleased.

Starts To Sob.
He started to sob again, wrung his hands, stood up and begged for Baughman attempted to pacify him.
Seever talked again and said: "I was reaching back and this caused the accident."

"My wife was trying to shoot me" he repeated a second time. "I won't blame my wife" he said.

"How did she get the gun?" he was asked.

"I don't know."
He repeated that he purchased the gun at Sharon "in a place near where there are bridges."

He said he had never been in any serious trouble and that he had been married 12 or 13 years. He has been married to Stella Seever, who was killed, for 12 or 13 years. He does not know exactly how long he said.

Seever said they had no children.
Others Molested
Max Felma, newsboy of Youngstown, felt the wrath of the murderer when he, Charles Hickey, Jimmy Engle (the pugilist), Danny Julo,
Tony Uagis, Thomas Curry and John Karr were in a newspaper truck enroute to sell newspapers.

He said that he noticed blood on the back window of the Seever car. Felma said he seen a woman walking up the road. He said he did not see the other woman or the little boy. The elderly man was in the car.

His truck was forced off the road
by the murderer's car.

One of the other boys spied the gun and yelled "Don't stop!"

He alleged that Seever pointed the gun at him and told him to get along.
"I told him I was only a newsboy and he replied" according to Felma that Seever exclaimed:

"One or two more don't mean anything in my life."

He then struck Felma on his head with the butt of his revolver, inflicting a wound.

The boys fled and later came to New Castle. Felma was excited when he told his story.

Sees Capture
Frank Dixon of 1021 Centre avenue,
Butler, was a witness to the capture of Seever near the intersection of the Edensburg and Youngstown roads this morning. He was driving out to the corner and went down the Edensburg road a short distance to turn around. Seever's car was noted coming up the road from the direction of the Harbor, pursued by state police. Fling was still coming from the automobile and the car was careening from one side of the road to the other. The state police officers passed the car and blocked its passage so that it was forced to stop.

One officer jumped into the car and captured Seever and the other forced the car to stop.

"The man appeared to be crazy," said Mr. Dixon. "When I got up to the car he was yelling and said, 'I am not drunk and I am not crazy. Let

The state officers then got him.

"As I came along the road I saw him leaning back in the car and the gun was smoking. The car was in the ditch and one woman was slumped back on the rear seat."

Machine Little Damaged
Seever's machine was but little damaged in the crash. It had evidently gone off the road on the left-hand side and gotten into the ditch, which is quite wide at this point, where it jammed between the two benches and finally came to rest against a telephone pole.

There was a bullet hole in the windshield, directly in front of the driver's seat, and another hole in the roof of the car where a bullet apparently had torn its way through.

The floor of the machine was covered with blood, as were the back rest and cushion in the back of the car.

On the floor of the machine was a burlap sack containing a live chicken, and a black leather handbag, the property of Mrs. Rodgers, who was sitting at the time W. W.
Rodgers.

The proprietor and employees of the Castle Inn at the Parktown corners, only about a hundred yards distant, stated that there was no shooting after the crash and it is evident that Seever must have shot the members of the party just before he crashed up.

They said they were first attracted by the sound of the crash, after which they noticed the old man get out and start to run across the field, where he was overtaken by the state troopers.

Superficial examination of the body of Mrs. John D. Seever by Coroner J. P. Caldwell, since her death, shows that she was shot four times.

Two of the shots entered her body under the left breast and the fourth in the neck.

A post mortem examination will be held this afternoon under the supervision of the coroner to determine the exact cause of death.

At the hospital late this afternoon it was stated that Mrs. Rodgers' condition was so critical that her death will probably occur.

Statements were secured from the aged John Seever, and Walter Rodgers, the boy, by District Attorney Elder Bryan this afternoon, at the hospital.

Try This on your breakfast table

Say nothing to the family. Let them think that tomorrow's breakfast is going to be just like any other breakfast.

Then—surprise them! At each place have a beaming bowl of Heinz Rice Flakes.

"Oho—what's this?" they'll ask, when they see these curly golden-brown flakes of fairy lightness.

Say nothing. Let them do their own "finding out".

Then the fun begins. "Where did they come from?" "What are they?" "Like nut-meats!" "Like pop-corn!"—and good—oh so good!

Good indeed, to see youngsters and oldsters really enjoying breakfast.

Good to see them feeling so much better—when these breakfasts become a daily treat.

For Heinz Rice Flakes are good for everybody. Because Heinz has perfected a new process in cereal-making which transforms the natural roughage of the rice into a pure cellulose and produces a gentle natural laxative effect that means happy, joyous health!

Isn't it all wonderful?

NURSE IS REPROVED AND FORGIVEN

The Queen turned to Nurse. "You are jealous, that's what you are, you dear old thing. And if I didn't know you so well and love you so deeply, I'd be cross with you, that I would!"

The funny fat bee waddled nearer the throne, shaking her head and muttering to herself. But when Her Highness bent over and patted her on her back with a delicate feeler, the cross old lady bee smiled a benevolent smile that was comical to see—at least Peter thought so. Then Peter remembered something.

"Why the funny fat old thing acts exactly as my old nurse used to," said Peter to himself. "She scolded the Queen just as my nurse scolded me when she thought I was in danger of doing something that she considered foolish or that she feared might hurt me. How odd to find out that bees are so much like people! I shouldn't be a bit surprised if Nurse turned out to be real nice, once a fellow became acquainted with her."

"Come to think of it, 'twas Nurse herself whom Nurse here reminded me of. Bee as one is and a Two-Leg the other, their voices sound alike, Nurse's and Nurse's." At this moment Peter was interrupted in his reflections.

"Dawdler," cried the Queen. "Dawdler, come here, if you please!" By the side of the throne stood a little round stool. On this stool sat a roly poly fellow, who didn't seem to be paying any attention to what was going on about him. Peter had been watching him out of a corner of his eye.

He stretched out first one wing and then another and smoothed and polished them with his hairy legs until they fairly shone, and every now and then he gazed at himself in the tiniest of mirrors, which hung about his fat neck on a waxen cord.

The roly-poly's head was round and thick, and perched on the top of it was a hat which looked like a man's silk one, only instead of being black it was yellow.

Next: "Dawdler the Dude."

Washington-Pittsburgh Airline Service Starts

National Capital But One Hour And Forty-Four Minutes From Pittsburgh By Plane

Three Trips Daily Planned; First Flight Is Chronicled Over Radio

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, July 25.—The Washington-Pittsburgh Commuters Airline service is beginning today, with its success lies just around the corner for the project. The first two trial flights were made yesterday, it is average time of one hour and forty-four minutes between the cities.

"This certainly proves the feasibility of commuting between Pittsburgh and the capital by airplane," Colonel Harry C. Fry, backer of the idea and owner of the Stinson-Detroler plane being used said after completion of the first test runs.

Three Flights Daily
Piloted by Jack Morris, the six-passenger monoplane, hopped off again today on its schedule, and Colonel Fry hoped to make the regular routine at least three flights daily. Airline distance between Pittsburgh and Washington is approximately 200 miles, he said. The first trip, made just after dawn yesterday, was the fastest, taking only one hour and twenty-five minutes. "Three trips would have been made during the day, but the machine blew a tail skid landing at Bettis Field here after the second flight," Colonel Fry said.

Jack Thompson, entertainer of Pittsburgh, was radio chronicler of the flights, broadcasting from the plane through a special hookup with station KDKA, Pittsburgh. W. T.
Beatty, Pittsburgh manager for the Stinson company; Attorney Samuel Winner and Elmer O. Schellinger were among the first day's passengers. Invitations had been extended to several prominent persons in Washington to drop into Pittsburgh for lunch and return to the capital for dinner.

David S. Hammond and Thomas Hammond, promoters, and their wives, hopped to Washington yesterday and were to return today.

Auto Runs 59 Miles On Gallon Of Gas

Automobile engineers who worked for years in an effort to reduce gasoline consumption have found the solution in a marvelous invention that fits in all cars. An actual test made by one of the engineers showed 59 miles on a gallon of gas. Thousands of car owners have already installed this new invention. They not only report amazing gas savings, but are also surprised to find quicker pick-up, instant starting, smoother running and less wear on the engine.

Police Seeking To Untangle Mystery Of Strange Gunplay

Coraopolis Heights Man Severely Wounded By Intruder At Door Of Home

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, July 25.—Unsatisfied with explanation either of an intended hold-up or of a gang retribution, police today were seeking a new trail to solution of the shooting of Horace Townsend, 45, politician, at his summer home in Coraopolis Heights.

Townsend was in Homeopathic hospital, his leg shattered by a bullet which he said was fired by a mysterious nocturnal visitor who escaped.
The son of the late Harry Townsend, political power, said the man fired on him as he stepped from the door of his home to answer a summons from the man. Several shots were fired before the intruder's gun jammed, Townsend said. Police investigating said they found no traces of any other shot than the one which struck Townsend in the leg.

Both the robbery and gangster theories were held by police to be untenable. Townsend was able to offer no further suggestions as to the motive of his assailant.

Coen's Dog Knows His Advertisements

Frank "Jewie" Coen, local semi-pro hurler with the Massillon Agathons, lost a valuable coon dog several days ago, which he mourned for lost.

Abandoning hope of the animal returning to his kennel, he came to The News yesterday morning and inserted an advertisement. The News for the lost canine. Just a short time before the paper came out onto the street, Frank was standing on Washington street, when he became conscious of some animal sniffing at his heels. Looking down, he saw the lost dog, standing there patiently wagging his tail, as if to say, "Well, don't you know me?"

Frank is convinced that the dog found out in some manner that he was going to get his name in the paper, and not desiring the unwelcome publicity had decided to come back home.

THAT priceless treasure—a clear, flawless, lovely skin—charms, with admiration, the hearts of men.

First impressions cannot be good without a clear skin—first impressions are quickly made and are not soon forgotten. Old friends may excuse pimples and secretly sympathize but new acquaintances may not be so charitable. Skin blemishes are not inviting. Neither can they be covered up. They embarrass. Hold people back. Steal away joy and happiness.

A lovely—clear skin—is within the reach of all. To those who have lost it, hope is offered. You, too, may have a beautiful skin, rose-petal in texture, pretty as a picture and without a single pimple.

Many thousands have regained their strength and charm by taking S.S.S. It is Nature's own blood tonic for raising the body's power of resistance to disease, improving the appetite, building firm flesh, and clearing the skin. S.S.S. promotes constructive metabolism (healthy body building). It increases the number of red-blood-cells.

The way to the skin is through the blood. Strong, healthy blood nourishes the body and fights against infection and disease.

All good drug stores sell S.S.S. in two sizes. Ask for the larger size. It is more economical.

S.S.S. is made from fresh vegetable drugs and has a successful record of over 100 years back of it.

Big Snake Attacks Two Youths, Dog Is Hero, Life Is Saved

Copperhead Snake Bites Dog
Trying To Save Two Youngsters; Serum
Saves Life

Two Theories Of Science
Proven In Episode
Near Latrobe, Pa.

(International News Service)
LATROBE, Pa., July 25.—A battle between two small boys and a copperhead snake today had resulted in vindication of two theories of science; first, that the snake will pursue its victims, and second, that a new snakebite cure perfected by an unidentified embryo chemist really works.

Heroism of a pup saved the boys from the attack of the reptile, and the serum saved the dog who offered his life for his master.

Two small sons of Mrs. Thomas Miller of Latrobe took their pup, Felicitus, to Kingstone, nearby village, for an outing. The boys had chosen a rockpile or their playground and as they frisked with the dog a huge copperhead snake was aroused.

Sithering toward one of the children, the snake prepared to attack. The child ran screaming and the snake turned suddenly to attack the other Miller boy.

Dog Kills Snake.

Then Felicitus, who is only a mongrel puppy, justified his name. As the snake slid angrily for the child the dog jumped into the fray, blocking the snake's path. The snake raised to strike the dog and Felicitus sank his teeth in the snake's back. The snake, however, had its fangs free and it struck again and again at the dog. But Felicitus, protecting its masters, hung on grimly until the reptile was lifeless. The boys sought aid and a rural telephone was used to call the anonymous inventor of the new serum. The call was heeded and in a few hours injections were being made into the body of the heroic puppy. The serum worked.

Today science had been justified in two claims, the children were unharmed and the pup had recovered enough to be playful, the poison from the copperhead's fangs neutralized by the serum.

Piles Disappear

No Cutting Or Salves Needed
External treatments seldom banish Piles.
Nor does cutting remove the cause.
The cause is inside—bad circulation.
The blood is stagnant, the veins flabby.
The bowel walls are weak, the parts almost dead.

To quickly and safely rid yourself of piles you must free the circulation —send a fresh current through stagnant pools. Internal treatment is the one safe method. Ointments and cutting won't do it.

J. S. Leonard, M. D., a specialist, set at work some years ago to find a real internal remedy for piles. He succeeded. He named his prescription HEM-RID, and tried it in 1000 cases before he was drugged. Now HEM-RID is sold by druggists everywhere under guarantee. It is a harmless cal-let, easy to take, and can always be found at McKee's Kidney Store, Buckley's of New Castle, Inc. who will refund the purchase price to any dissatisfied customer.

The Way OF THE World

By GROVE PATTERSON

GOING ON TO SCHOOL

These days many boys and girls recently graduated from high school are trying to make up their minds whether they are going to buckle down and make the sacrifice necessary for a college or normal school education. Statistics prove that the chances of reaching a distinguished place in the world are enormously increased by a college education. As a selfish investment a college education is worth many times what it costs. Don't let anybody talk you out of going on further with your schooling if you can possibly do it.

CROSSING BORDERS

One reads that Charles S. Dewey, Eastern American financial adviser to Poland has been visiting in Moscow. He has been talking about one thing and another with officials of the Russian government. That is good news. Too bad more able business men, really representing the United States can not visit more frequently in Russia, in Poland, in Bulgaria, in Turkey, in China—everywhere. There is much to be accomplished in promoting harmony among the nations of earth by informal visiting which is yet of an official or semi-official nature. All official communication between nations should not be in the formal contacts of gold-braid diplomats.

It would be a great thing for the United States and for the world if we could keep a few official traveling men crossing the borders and coming home with new understanding of the other fellow's problems.

LEGGE

This man Legge called by President Hoover to the federal farm board furnishes a perfect example of democracy when it really works at its best. Here is a man at the head of an enormous private business. His salary is said to have been $100,000 a year. He gives it up to work for the common good as an official of the government at $12,000 a year. Twelve (thousand a year to be sure is a very large salary or would be for most folks. But it represents a sacrifice to a man capable of drawing $ or 10 times as much. There are few who will do what Legge did. That's why the government machine frequently rolls unsteadily.

THE WRONG APPROACH

It is customary when asking a man to do a job for which he is to receive no pay and the doing of which will constitute a free service to make him think it will take little time, that it will be easy, that it will entail little responsibility. Thus do we get men on the dotted line for some community service. Perhaps that is the wrong approach at least with the right kind of a man. Wouldn't it be more appealing to say that there is a hard job that will take time, effort and a high degree of ability? Will you do it?

It sounds easy, doesn't it?—well, it is the easiest, the safest and surest way to lose fat you could possibly desire!

KRUSCHEN SALTS—a perfect combination of the six mineral salts your body must have every day to function properly—purify your blood of harmful acids, aid the kidneys and bowels to throw off waste material, the continuous formation of which is probably the cause of your fat. In this modern age of living, it's impossible to get these salts from the fat foods you eat—but don't worry just as long as you have KRUSCHEN SALTS.

Take half a teaspoonful in a glass of hot water every morning. Little by little that ugly fat goes—slowly, yes—but surely and you feel so wonderfully healthy, ambitious and energetic—more so than ever before in your life!

State Sheriffs End Annual Convention In Pittsburgh Wednesday

(International News Service) PITTSBURGH, July 25.—Sheriff Robert H. Braun of Allegheny county on Wednesday was elected president of the Sheriff's State association at the closing meeting of the seventh annual convention. Thomas B. Kellow, Lehigh county, was named first vice president.

Other officers were John J. Snyder, Northampton county, second vice president; Dallas C. Schobert, Luzerne county, secretary; John MacLuskie, Luzerne county, treasurer. Schobert and MacLuskie were re-elected. The executive committee included these officers and Ray B. Johnson, Westmoreland county; Ira A. Baird, Blair county and Ody Abbott, Washington county.

The legislative committee for the association was to be appointed later by Braun who presided at today's meetings, because of illness of Thos. G. Sterrett of Erie retiring president. A resolution condemning support of the organizing soliciting support and advertising throughout the state by purporting to be a sheriffs and police officers association was adopted. The resolution denied connection of the organization.

Bronx Woman Is Found Murdered

(International News Service) NEW YORK, July 25.—Mrs. Catherine Kirschoff, 55, wealthy Bronx woman, was garroted and found dead in the bathtub of her home early Wednesday. Jewelry valued at $12,000 is gone from the apartment.

A nose of double-stranded twine was wound tightly five times around her neck and the ends fastened to a fixture above the water tap. Police say an attempt was made to simulate a suicide.

Frederick Kirschoff, who found his wife's body, insisted police make further investigation after they left the apartment, accepting the suicide theory. Medical Examiner Carl Seiders Kennard pronounced the woman victim of a murderer.

Bo-Broadway by JOSEPH VAN RAALTE

By Central Press NEW YORK, July 25.—The Eighteenth Amendment may have knocked the skids from under Broadway in general, but here and there along the lane you run across stray beneficiaries it has conferred.

Take the case of Jimmy Durante, Ziegfeld's latest raucous laugh specialist, who was practically boosted to his present eminence by officers of the Federal government and manufacturers of padlocks.

Sir James, the son of a barber, first saw the light of day in the neighborhood of Oliver street, a block from the birthplace of a lad known and honored as Alfred E. Smith.

James deserted the street corners of the East Side to undertake the subtle duties of piano player in a Coney Island dive. One of his jobs in this line had him banging the ivories in a melody and mush casino where the Eminent Eddie Cantor at the time was singing and walling on table.

Durante was a thrifty lad—I didn't say gritty—and saved enough dough to start a little orchestra of his own. Later he bravely opened a night club on the fringe of Mada Lane, and just as he was nearing

The Story Of The World War
70—Bulgaria Enters The War

THE ENTRANCE OF ITALY INTO THE WORLD WAR (MAY 23, 1915), ON THE SIDE OF THE ALLIES WAS SOMEWHAT OFFSET WHEN BULGARIA JOINED THE CENTRAL POWERS ON OCTOBER 14, 1915. THE CENTRAL POWERS HAD LONG BEEN WOOLING BULGARIA, AND THE LATTER, IMPRESSED BY THEIR RECENT VICTORIES, BELIEVED SHE WAS JOINING THE SIDE THAT WOULD ULTIMATELY TRIUMPH.

THE TEUTONS REJOICED AT BULGARIA'S ENTRANCE, FOR IT GAVE THEM A CLEAR ROAD TO TURKEY. IT WAS NOW POSSIBLE FOR THEM TO SEND TROOPS AND HEAVY ARTILLERY TO HELP THE TURKS IN DEFENDING THE DARDANELLES.

WHEN BULGARIA ENTERED THE WAR, THE GERMANS PURPOSED, WITH THE CO-OPERATION OF THE BULGARS AND THE AUSTRIANS, TO CARRY OUT THE LONG-DELAYED "EXECUTION" OF SERBIA. THE BULGARIAN ARMY WAS MOBILIZED ON THE SERBIAN FRONTIER AND STRONG AUSTRO-GERMAN FORCES WERE MARCHED ON THE DANUBE.

THIS TURN OF EVENTS CAUSED THE ALLIES TO ABANDON THEIR ATTEMPTS TO FORCE THE PASSAGE OF THE DARDANELLES, WHICH HAD ALREADY COST THEM 120,000 MEN. DECEMBER 20, 1915, THE BRITISH BEGAN WITHDRAWING FROM THE GALLIPOLI PENINSULA.

"Blacky" Fundoots of the Slovaks proved the outstanding hitter of the game, crashing out a homer over the left field wall and a triple which came close to being another four-sacker. The homer was the first hit out of the lot this year at Centennial field. The winners used Houston on the mound. He yielded but seven scattered bingles while A. Jones And Gitlitz Defy All "Heavies"

Gitlitz Lone Member Of Jewish Race In Heavyweight First Row

SCARNEY AND DUDAS IN SEMI-FINAL BOUT

Murray Gitlitz is the lone member of the Jewish race who remains among the topnotchers in the hunt for heavyweight honors. Murray became the lone Scarney as a result of the removal from the field of Jack Gross by Al Walker, a stablemate of Gitlitz.

Murray, as classy performer as there is in the ring today, is out with defies to the entire mob and stands ready to battle Jack Scarney, George Godfrey, Tom Heeney, Otto Von Porat, Phil Scott, Paulino Uezdun, Johnny Risko, Jack Delaney, Roberto Roberti, Tommy Loughran, Young Stribling, K. O. Christner, Knute Hansen and Jimmy Maloney.

Boxing at first a hobby with Gitlitz, who is a Yale graduate and was a member of the Yale and Olympic boxing team in '24 has held a fascination for this lad, who scales 180 pounds and stands 6 feet 1 inch in his stocking feet.

Walloped McFowler

In his last fight encounter, Gitlitz walloped the McFowler, giant negro from Pennsylvania, who was touted as a dark horse in the race for Gene Tunney's vacated crown. McFowler, who had made quite a "rep" for himself as a puncher, was lucky that he was not flattered by the New Haven boy who is now making New York his home.

Look over Gitlitz' record and one will see decision wins over such stars as Johnny Urban, Billy Vidaback, Marvin Schecter, Ernie Schaff, Phil Mercurio, George LaRocco, Al Friedman, Jimmy Mendes, Alex Rely and Jim Sigmund. Also kayo wins over Jeff Smith, Chief Halbram, George Gomas, George Connolly, Babe Slattery, Roscoe Hall, Bill Walker, Frank Johns, Billy Nolan, Jack O'Day and Al Schoner.

Murray is a great club performer—possessing a combination of cleverness and punching ability that is a treat to witness. Gitlitz's proud boast is that he has never appeared in a bout that proved unsatisfactory because of a lack of action. The gang yelling for action can have it from Murray any time they say the word.

Opponent Very Good

His opponent here Monday night is no other than Billy Jones, a 175 pound colored boy who has the respect of the white followers of the ring. He has defeated practically all his opponents since the day he entered the ring and everyone of them pronounce him to be a clean, ethical boxer who fights fairly and hard to win.

He can box and like all Afro-Americans is cunning. That latter characteristic is one thing that has made

West Pittsburg Defeats Energy

Fields Favored To Beat Dundee In Bout Tonight

Jackie Fields, Coast Battler Hopes To Secure Welterweight Crown Tonight

By ROBERT B. WALLACE
International News Service Staff Correspondent
DETROIT, July 25.—Jackie Fields, known to his relatives out in Los Angeles as Jake Pinkelstein, will greet the new day tomorrow with a glad cry—the natural, irrepressible outburst of a man who has just become welterweight champion of the world.

All the experts will tell you, if you ask them, that it's going to be just too bad for Joe Dundee, the poor, old doddering "cheese champion" from Baltimore, when he meets Jackie in their 15-round imbroglio here tonight.

Many of the experts, in fact, will tell you even if you don't ask them.

Odds Favor Field

And five will win you seven, according to the prevailing market quotations this morning, if you think the boys are wrong.

It isn't often that a champion is on the short end of the betting. At this point one is moved to observe, "but what a champion."

Since he outcuffed Pete Latzo for the welter crown at the Polo Grounds, two years ago, Dundee's record has been something to make strong men break down and weep like children. Joe has been beaten, disqualified, and has conducted himself generally in a most undignified manner.

He retained his title only because those fights in which he engaged were of the over-the-weight variety, in which the title was not involved.

But it will be involved tonight and Jackie Fields, the 21-year-old welter from the coast, who has won 18 fights in the last 18 months, believes it will be less involved tomorrow. Incidentally, Fields already is recognized as the champion in the 26 states of the National Boxing Association.

Mushball League

Tonight at Colonial field the Firemen will battle the Phalanx team in a Mushball league game. The game is scheduled to start at 6:30 o'clock.

Carnegie Nine Trips Pontiacs

The Carnegie Nine defeated the Pontiacs 11 to 2 in a game played at the Carnegie playgrounds. The winners had eight errors, but managed to win the decision. The Carnegie boys scored three runs in the first inning, five in the second and three more in the fifth to take the victory. LaRocco, Brincko and Ponton pitched good ball.

The score by innings: R. H. E.

Carnegie 350 030 11 9 8
Batteries—Carnegie Nine, LaRocco and Marlin; Pontiacs, Brincko, Ponton and Campbell. Umpires—Farrone and Sullivan.

Athletics Have Ten-Game Lead

Yanks Will Have To Play Good Baseball Next Two Months To Overtake Macks

CONNIE MACK IS PENNANT BOUND

By DAVID J. WALSH
Sports Editor International News Service
NEW YORK, July 25.—The boys who sit in the back room and only come out to see what day it is have come to the conclusion that the Yankees are licked for the American League pennant, which makes the boys only a month late in being right, and the Yanks have blown, which makes them wrong with great alacrity. The Yanks have blown so completely that they are playing well ahead of their July speed of any year since 1926 and, with nothing in particular to bear, they would be riding out in from under an exercise boy by this time.

Ten Games Behind

They simply have made the immemorial mistake of all human kind. They have over-matched themselves. Due to be licked at even weights, they have staked one of the great ball clubs of the ages, the Philadelphia Athletics, to a ten-game lead and, if they find themselves tangle-footing around in a situation like that, it only means that providence still is dealing the deck.

The Yanks, winning two in a row from the Tigers, ran their luck into nineteen victories in the last twenty-six games for a percentage of 760. That's moving faster than a fly-by-night promoter, yet they have looked (Continued On Next Page)

Girl Hopes To Coach Real Football Team; Studies Gridiron Play

By Central Press.
AURORA, N. C., July 25.—Coaching girls may satisfy some young women, but Ella Mae Henderson has ambitions to some day coach a boy's football team. That's why she is attending Furman university, Greenville, S. C., summer coaching school to learn all there is about punting, passing and taking tacklers out on a line play.

Miss Henderson, who has from Greenville, has been directing girls' activities at Aurora, but next fall she is expected to take an active part in assisting in coaching the boys' football team.

While at Furman, Miss Henderson studies under some of the master minds of southern football. Her teachers include Coach Bill Alexander and Coach Bill Fincher of the champion Georgia Tech outfit; Coach Wallace Wade of Alabama and Coach Louie Harbage of Vanderbilt.

Miss Henderson graduated at Winthrop college, Rock Hill, S. C., in 1928 and while there she was a star in track and basketball.

Believing that coaching requires more brain than brawn and she has plenty of both she has now turned her attention to football with the intention of combining a woman's ability to make men do or die with scientific study of the game's intricacies.

"Of course I expect to work out with the boys," she says. "I couldn't ask them to do work that I wouldn't do. I am stronger than the average high school lad, and while I may not scrimmage I will hit the dummy with the best of them."

Miss Henderson, who has attained the age of 21 without appearing to be more than 17, also receives instruction in basketball and track at the summer school.

Wilson Hits Two Circuit Clouts

Hack Wilson Helps Put Cubs Back In First Place By Hitting Two Homers

By LES CONKLIN.
International News Service Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, July 25.—Instead of being the only outstanding combination of circuit clouters in the big leagues, the Yankee firm of Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig is being paced by five other duos in this year's home run derby. The totals of the six sets of home run twins are: Klein and O'Connell of the Phillies, 49; Ruth and Gehrig, 45; Bottomley and Laffey of the Cardinals, 44; Ott and Jackson of the Giants, 44; and Simmons and Fox of the Athletics, 42.

Wilson hits two.
Wilson and Hornsby went on a rampage against the giants yesterday, "Knockout Hack" walloping his 24th and 25th homers and Hornsby contributing his 20th. Their activities enabled the Brains to snatch an 8 to 7 win from the Giants, who scored all their runs in a sixth-inning outburst. The Cubs regained the league lead, as Pittsburgh lost to Brooklyn again, 6 to 4. Babe Herman's two triples helped Lefty Clark outpoint Heinie Meine, the Pirate hurler.

Bill McKenchnie resumed command of the St. Louis club under auspicious circumstances. The Cards beating the Phillies 6 to 4, Rother's honor with the bases full broke up the party. George Sisler's triple with two on staked the Boston Braves to a 5 to 3 triumph over Cincinnati.

Earnshaw Wins Again.
With George Earnshaw chalking up his 15th win of the season, the Athletics made it two out of three from Cleveland, 5 to 3.

Scoring three runs in the eighth on five consecutive hits, the Yankees beat Detroit again, 7 to 5. Penneck and Uhle pitched.

Babe Ruth returned to the line-up on the third game in seven days as the Nats subdued the White Sox, 3 to 2.

The Red Sox, clouted fourteen hits and outslugged the Browns, 9 to 7.

ed the part of an ice wagon coming home from a hard day outside the shop of Mr. Sweeney, the popular barber. Why? Because, good as they are, it happens that they are being paced by a club that is better, much better. I admit that Ruth has been a sick man, that Meusel and Gehrig somehow can't hit the ground with a handful of confetti, that Penneck isn't the man he was and that Hoyt has lost everything except his appetite since June 25. But having conceded all of this, I fail to see where it proves anything on a club that moves at a 760 pace through the month just concluded.

Knacks Look Good

It simply means that, in all the mauling hysteria over the supposed death of a great club, that another and perhaps better one has risen in its place. It probably would take the Yankees of 1923 to beat the present Athletics, and even then, it would be to toss your coin in hope for the break. Time alone will annoint the Athletics and give them the benediction of greatness. They have everything now except the approval that hastens into the light of day as soon as victory is official. The boys always can be relied upon to approve very heartily of a winner.

Seven errors by the Congregationals allowed the Christians to score many runs. Simmons and Ryan both pitched good baseball. The First Christians kicked in with three errors. Steinbrink featured the game with a home run drive. Rogovin had a triple, and Sheets, H. Ryan and Lewis had doubles.

PITTSBURGH, July 25.—The Pirates tumbled into second place yesterday when Brooklyn took the second game of their Forbes Field series 6-4. Each team made 10 hits but Brooklyn made their wallop count for runs. Clark of Brooklyn had a delivery that was difficult to solve when Pirates had runners on the paths. Jackie Fields will make an effort to wrest the welterweight title from the veteran Joe Dundee in a 15-round bout at Detroit tonight. Neither has had any difficulty making the weight. Several experts have predicted that Fields will win the title but some others believe that Joe is still tricky and good enough to retain his crown.

Lutz, Post Office Catcher Is Knocked Unconscious Ending Game In Fifth Inning

The Boro A. C. walloped the Post Office team 21 to 0, in a City-County League game, played at the Boro field on Wednesday night. The game was halted in the fifth due to a very unfortunate accident when Dunkerly in trying to stretch his hit into a home run, crashed into Lutz, the Mail Carriers' catcher and knocked him unconscious. There were but two out in the first of the fifth when the accident occurred.

The Boro team went wild in the first five innings and scored a total of twenty-one runs on seventeen hits, and two errors. Wilson, and Roberts essayed to pitch for the Mail Carriers, but were met with a barrage of hits.

Sumner and Duncan on the knoll for the Boro team held the Post Office to two hits.

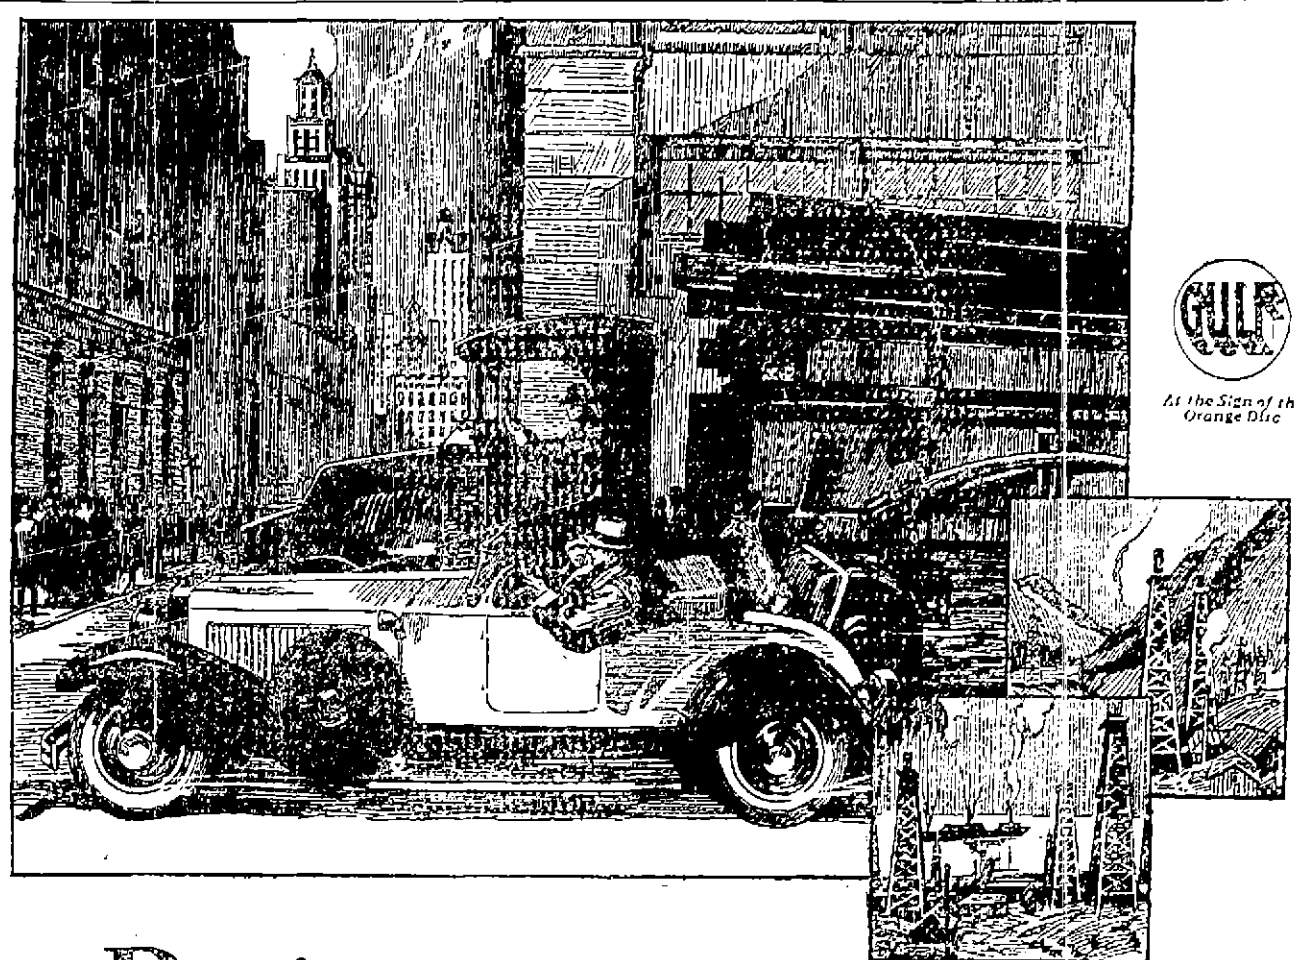

The Boro A. C. team would like to schedule games with the Church League teams, and others. For games call 864-R 13, and ask for W. G. Swisher, manager.

These events were followed by the distribution of tickets for the park amusements and Rickies and Dixie cups and the committee in charge was almost put out of existence by the grand rush of the enthusiastic boys and girls.

Dancing was the diversion during the afternoon and evening and hundreds participated in this feature. The children of the Margaret Henry Home were guests of honor at the event.

Equipping New Jameson Hospital Is Tremendous Job

Great Variety Of Special Equipment Is Being Installed In Institution

One of the biggest tasks in connection with the completion of the new Jameson Memorial hospital, has been the purchase and installation of the great amount of special equipment, which is now being received, and which is expected to make the new hospital the finest equipped institution outside the great medical centers of the country.

The building itself is now completed and practically all of the furniture has been installed. The nurses home is also ready for occupancy, but there is still considerable special equipment to be purchased and installed before the hospital will be ready for use by the public.

Those on the outside can scarcely realize the tremendous job that lies in selecting the equipment. A vast amount of special apparatus has been purchased, all of which has had to be procured from different concerns. Then too, there have been surgical supplies, of a wide variety, types of which are made only by companies which make a specialty of certain kinds of this equipment.

This has taken much more time than had originally been expected. However, most of this work has now been completed and as soon as this special equipment has been received and installed, the hospital will be formally opened.

Only the most modern equipment is being selected for the hospital, with the view of making it the most completely equipped medical center between Pittsburgh, Cleveland and Buffalo and when the job is finished, this aim will have been accomplished.

Parking Forbidden At Lower Park Gate

Motor Club Repeats Warning To Local Motorists During Detour Travel

Motorists who persist in parking at the roadside near the lower Cascade Park entrance while the New Castle-Bellwood road detour is in effect, will be arrested and fined.

This is the warning from the New Castle Motor Club to members and all motorists who persist in leaving their cars by the road side.

Signs have been posted, states B. N. Hanlon, manager of the motor club, and those motorists who park will have to suffer the penalty. Other warnings have been given but apparently have done little good.

State patrolmen have been ordered to arrest these offenders while the detour is in effect and warning is hereby given to all motorists.

New Police Chief To Shift Force

Lyden Will Put More Men On Night Duty At Youngstown

YOUNGSTOWN, O., July 25.—Reorganization of the police department will be made when Paul Lyden replaces the veteran J. J. McNicholas as chief, Lyden announces. The new chief takes office at noon today.

Lyden, former Mahoning county sheriff, announced he would reduce the detective force and put more men on night duty. He indicated that he would make some drastic changes in the vice squad, which is under the supervision of William J. Englehardt, assistant police chief.

McNicholas, who has served on the Youngstown police force 38 years, was dismissed by Mayor J. L. Heffernan. McNicholas' dismissal followed the removal of two policemen of liquor from the police station several weeks ago. Federal authorities investigated and advised a change in the police department.

McNicholas declared that Youngstown was "wide open" when he took office, "but now it is a closed city."

Lyden has served as county detective for the last two years.

Monthly Party At Field Club Tonight

Unique Program To Be Presented At Club House This Evening

Bill Shakespeare never belonged to the New Castle Field club and therefore never lost his temper in pitching to the green or number five. By the same sign, the historically inclined members of the New Castle Field club never knew Bill Shakespeare but that doesn't stop them from putting on some of his works.

In fact nothing short of a broken leg would stop them for tonight is the monthly party, and Shakespeare has the pole. Under the direction of the Belasco of the Lawrence County Bar, Robert McKinney White, and his friend wife three pieces of drama or something will be presented.

Hamlet in Sport Clothes.
That good old pot boiler of all tragedians, Hamlet, will get a thorough workout as the first endeavor of the evening with a cast that would have had Beerbohm-Tren and Mansfield and the rest of the Shakespearean actors, hanging on the rail with envy.

The second piece of work will be "So's Your Old Antique," presented by some of the Theatre Guild Players. Lastly will come "Fortinbras in Plain Clothes."

The usual club dinner precedes the acting and a dance follows it. Members are invited to hold everything until tonight. They are also invited to carry no weapons into the club house as the players will do the best they can.

Only One Survivor Of A.E.F. Of 1846 Left

Owen Thomas Edgar, Aged 98, Is Last Of Veterans Of War With Mexico

Owen Thomas Edgar aged 98, is the sole surviving veteran of the war with Mexico in 1846, Foreign Service official publication of the Veterans of Foreign Wars states in its current issue.

Four years ago there were 11 veterans of that conflict still living. Two years later there were but four. The hand of death claimed Edgar's final comrade on June 16, 1928 when William F. Buckner of Paris, Mo., passed on at the age of 101.

Edgar is now living at the John Dickson home in Washington, D. C. He served in the navy while Buckner had served in the infantry. Edgar is the oldest living member of the V. F. W., the remaining of the war that gave to America its first band of veterans to become distinguished by services beyond the boundaries of their native country.

Can't Take Vote On Daylight Savings Time

ERIE, Pa., July 25.—County commissioners will not order the question of daylight savings to be placed on the ballot at the fall election. It was reported this morning.

Acting on the advice of their solicitor, H. P. Mook, commissioners will not put the question up to voters, as has been requested by the school board, they said.

According to Mook, placing of the daylight savings question on the ballot would be illegal. A law now exists on the statute books of Pennsylvania prohibiting municipalities to adopt such time, it is said. The method used here now is unofficial, and is accomplished by individuals and corporations setting their clocks ahead on hour during the summer months for their own convenience. It was pointed out that there is no municipal order in effect here on the adoption of a summer schedule of time.

The matter was brought to the attention of school board officials who have objected to the summer time schedule, and an effort was made by gladioli and the spikes are now heavy with buds.

The warm evenings and occasional rains have brought the bulbs along at a rapid rate and inside of a week or slightly more the immense garden of "gladioli" will be a picture.

HECK! CLAREMORE WON'T ATTEMPT A REFUELING FLIGHT

(Special To The News)
BEVERLY HILLS, Cal., July 25.—Here is some news that I think will be of interest at this time to the entire world. Claremore, Okla., will not attempt to break the refueling record. There is a city that always strives to be original. We had a lot about the kind of gas they use, what gas they use, what gas they use, what gas they use. But nobody has ever said what kind of gas they use to get the gas from one plane to another. It's time somebody spoke a word for gas.

Mr. Hoover says we are spending too much on military expenses, and is appointing a commission to investigate it. Their salaries will be added to the cost.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

PA NEW OBSERVES

West Side residents living in the vicinity of Greenwood avenue, which was paved recently, are complaining of the excessive amount of tar which was placed on the street by the city. During the extremely hot weather the tar has gathered in huge balls on the street, and motorists and pedestrians have tracked the sticky fluid over a wide amount of territory.

Pa New observed a young "yellow hammer" or "licker" flitting about on the Mercer street hill this morning. It had evidently been frightened from its nest by the storm last night. It screamed shrilly when attempts were made to pick it up.

S. C. Teece possesses a unique coin in the shape of a counterfeit copper penny bearing the date of 1853. On the back of the coin in perfect lettering is the inscription, "Not One Cent." He has had the piece in his possession for some time.

The heat has finally proven too much for members of the Booster Club and they are going to take a vacation during the month of August, but plan to redouble their efforts during September.

Pa New does not know whether employees read his mind or not, but at any rate, the scraper which he noticed progressing up Mercer street yesterday morning, stopped on West Park avenue and began the task of leveling off some of the bumps for which the street is famous. Many thanks!

Some of the excessive heat of the past few days was broken by a cooling shower during the night. It was badly needed to help the roasting sun along, as the fields have become quite dry.

Pa New wonders just how many persons of this city are away on vacation. Milk men and paper boys he chaps who have a very close tie to such things, report an overwhelming number on tour or vacation at the present time.

"ALL'S WELL"—CALAHAN

Scouts Radiogram When 1200 Miles At Sea—All Are Well, Says Message

"All's Well."
To the scouts, friends, parents, and everyone in general, a radiogram from somewhere in the Atlantic to New Castle, slipped through the air on Wednesday evening.

It was a message from J. Lee Calahan, chief scout executive here, and his corps of 19 Lawrence county boys who were, at the time of sending the radiogram, some 1,200 miles out on the rolling Atlantic abroad the S. S. Samaria.

Just a simple message but enough to let the folks at home know that the lads and men are faring well, enjoying the breeze and brine, and still on their glorious adventure.

There was no hint of sea sickness. There probably are two or three of the boys who are feeling a mite unsettled but that is expected. Those little things will be saved to tell and retell many times when they arrive back in this city.

The local party has been on the water since noon last Saturday. The Samaria sailed at 11 o'clock and since that afternoon, there has been no sight of land.

The lads will still see nothing but green, rolling waves until July 29 when they will arrive in Liverpool, England and proceed immediately to Birkenhead, the first stop, and the site of the international jamboree camp.

John A. Bell Is Seeking Parole In Court Today

Former Carnegie Banker And Once Wealthy Coal Baron Asks For His Freedom

PETITION SIGNED BY 500 DEPOSITORS

Has Already Served Minimum Part Of Six And One-Half Year Sentence

By FRANCIS L. ARMSTRONG
International News Service Staff Correspondent

PITTSBURGH, July 25.—A former millionaire banker and coal operator, whose name was famous throughout western Pennsylvania, was to walk with the aid of attendants, from Allegheny hospital to common pleas court today, seeking a parole from a six-year sentence. John A. Bell, whose banking failure wiped out several thousand investors, was to present a petition signed by more than 500 of his ex-depositors, asking that sentence be modified.

Bell was sentenced for embezzlement and fraudulent conversion, to a term of six and one-half years. He had been serving the sentence in Allegheny General hospital.

Losses 20 Pounds.

The business baron has lost 20 pounds in weight since his sentencing, according to his attorney, Oliver K. Eaton. His once full and ruddy face had become thin and he was a mere shadow of the John A. Bell so well known here, as he lay on his cot in the hospital.

Judge Ambrose B. Reid and Frank P. Patterson were to sit at the hearing. Bell was to be taken from his wheelchair and brought into court to support his request that the remainder of his sentence be abated.

Petition Presented.

The petition signed by the 500 depositors in Bell's financial ventures merely set forth that inasmuch as he had fulfilled the minimum requirements of his sentence, and since his health was falling rapidly, Bell requested a parole.

Affairs of the ex-banker have been prominent in courts here even since his incarceration, and recently his attorneys announced he was penniless and unable to pay his hospital bills.

"My client hasn't one cent to rub against another," Eaton said today, of the man who once was rated as possessor of a fortune of more than $10,000,000.

Bell has suffered two paralytic strokes since he was sentenced. His wife died recently.

And The Dear Brother Takes Away The Grips Of The Fraters

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, July 25.—"Well, well—if it isn't some of the old gang! and how're tricks?" inquired an urbane stranger as he walked into the Beta Theta Pi fraternity house at the University of Pittsburgh. The stranger forthwith sat down and made himself at home in hall fellow, well-met fashion.

Being a "brother" the stranger was allowed the freedom of the house, and he availed himself of the privilege.

Today the summer students at Pitt, who are members of the fraternity, were looking rather sheepish. The "brother" they found, was not a brother at all, although he assumed the prerogatives of the usual brother. When he departed the chap took with him all of the college men's money and a great deal of their clothes.

Lyden Will Put More Men On Night Duty At Youngstown

YOUNGSTOWN, O., July 25.—Reorganization of the police department will be made when Paul Lyden replaces the veteran J. J. McNicholas as chief, Lyden announces. The new chief takes office at noon today.

Lyden, former Mahoning county sheriff, announced he would reduce the detective force and put more men on night duty. He indicated that he would make some drastic changes in the vice squad, which is under the supervision of William J. Englehardt, assistant police chief.

McNicholas' dismissal followed the removal by two policemen of liquor from the police station several weeks ago. Federal authorities investigated and advised a change in the police department.

McNicholas declared that Youngstown was "wide open" when he took office, "but now it is a closed city."

Lyden has served as county detective for the last two years.

John D. Seevers, 38, of 7310 Cedar Street, Cleveland, Ohio, is held in charge of the Pennsylvania State Police here, pending outcome of wounds to his wife, son, and another woman, who was a passenger in his auto, also an aged man, who was in their auto, shortly after 11 o'clock this morning, all being shot during a wild ride along the Youngstown road five or six miles west of this city towards New Castle. The wife died shortly after being taken to the hospital, Coroner J. P. Caldwell reported.

Details of the affair are not as yet cleared up, but from what officers have been able to learn, Seevers had been drinking and when the auto reached a point along the road, started shooting, the affair finally ending up with the passengers in the car being victims.

The wounded were brought to the Shenango Valley hospital in this city, and are being cared for.

Seevers, was captured by the state police while still firing the gun, near the intersection of the Youngstown road and the road to Edenburg. He was brought to this city and is being questioned by the state police in an effort to learn the cause of the shootings.

The auto was wrecked when the state police effected a capture of the Cleveland man after the shooting.

All of the persons in the car were Cleveland residents, being members of Seevers' auto party. It is understood.

The man who was shot is John Seevers, father of the man who did the shooting, and the woman is Mrs. Catherine Rodgers, of Cleveland. The wounded boy is her son, Walter Rodgers. The boy is not badly hurt.

Big Snake Attacks Two Youths, Dog Is Hero, Life Is Saved

Copperhead Snake Bites Dog Trying To Save Two Youngsters; Serum Saves Life

Two Theories Of Science Proven In Episode Near Latrobe, Pa.

(International News Service)
LATROBE, Pa., July 25.—A battle between two small boys and a copperhead snake today had resulted in vindication of two theories of science: first, that the snake will pursue its victims, and second, that a new snakebite cure perfected by an unidentified embryo chemist really works.

Heroism of a pup saved the boys from the attack of the reptile, and the serum saved the dog—no offered his life for his master.

Two small sons of Mrs. Thomas Miller of Latrobe took their pup, Felicitus, to Kingston, nearby village, for an outing. The boys had chosen a rockpile or their playground, and as they frisked with the dog a huge copperhead snake was aroused. Slithering toward one of the children, the snake prepared to attack. The child ran screaming and the snake turned suddenly to attack the other Miller boy.

Dog Kills Snake

Then Felicitus, who is only a month-old puppy, justified his name. As the snake slid angrily for the child, the dog jumped into the fray, blocking the snake's path. The snake raised to strike the dog and Felicitus sunk his teeth in the snake's back.

The snake, however, had its fangs free and it struck again and again at the dog. But Felicitus, protecting his masters, hung on grimly until the reptile was lifeless. The boys sought aid and a rural telephone was used to call the anonymous inventor of the new serum. The call was heeded and in a few hours injections were being made into the body of the heroic puppy. The serum worked.

Today science had been justified in two claims, the children were unharmed and the pup had recovered enough to be playful, the poison from the copperhead's fangs neutralized by the serum.

Out of funds, Violet Wilmet of Newark, N. J., who is under sentence to hang for murder, today began a 10-day sentence for vagrancy here because she was unable to pay $10 fine. The girl was on her way from Newark to Meadville, where her husband is waiting for execution. Part of the way she hitch-hiked, she said.

When arraigned the girl-wife said she had no definite plans formed, but she intended making an effort to save Wilmet from the gallows.

69—In France And The Caucasus, 1915

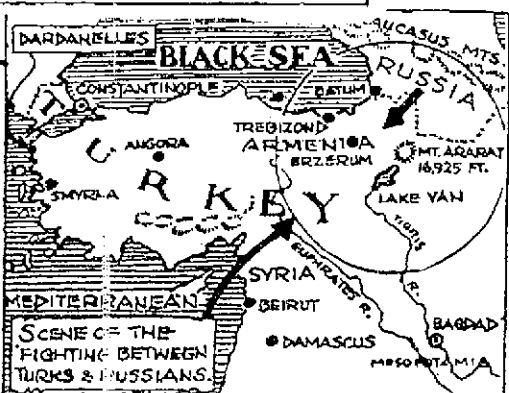

FOR JOFFRE'S GREAT DRIVE AGAINST THE GERMANS IN FRANCE IN SEPTEMBER, 1915, THE ALLIES HAD MASSED 3,500,000 MEN ON THE WESTERN FRONT. THE GERMANS OPPOSING THEM NUMBERED LESS THAN 2,000,000, BUT WERE STRONGLY INTENSIFIED. THE FRENCH ATTACKED IN CHAMPAGNE AND AT LENS, MAKING SMALL GAINS, BUT THE GERMAN LINE REMAINED UNBROKEN.

IT WAS THE SAME STORY WITH THE BRITISH UNDER SIR DOUGLAS HAIG, WHO ADVANCED AGAINST GERMANS BEHIND A CLOUD OF POISON GAS AND TOOK THE TOWN AND DROVES OF PRISONERS. ONLY TO BE STOPPED BY THE ARRIVAL OF GERMAN RESERVES. AGAIN THE ALLIES HAD FAILED TO BREAK THROUGH.

MORE ENCOURAGING NEWS FOR THE ALLIES CAME FROM THE CAUCASUS, WHERE THE RUSSIANS HAD REPULSED A LARGE ARMY OF TURKS, ANNIHILATING ONE WHOLE ARMY CORPS AND DRIVING THE REST OF THE INVADERS BACK INTO ARMENIA.

FOLLOWING THIS SUCCESS THE RUSSIANS TOOK THE AGGRESSIVE AND, INVADING ARMENIA, DROVE THE ENEMY BACK TOWARD THE LAKE VAN DISTRICT, WHERE THE TURKS HAD BEEN MASSACRING OR DEPORTING THOUSANDS OF ARMENIAN CHRISTIANS.

New York's Wonders.

J. M. P. has studied war at close range and thinks China would beat Russia. He is mistaken. The Chinese are brave, but peaceful. Revolution has made the Russians unite, the workers in a feeling of freedom, the peasants in ownership of land.

Nothing has ever happened to unite the Chinese. North China cannot understand the language of South China. Generally speaking, they hate each other.

War was won by intelligence and enthusiasm. Intelligence and enthusiasm are on the side of Russia.

China will appeal to the League of Nations of "Russia's unlawful acts." How much attention will the league pay to that appeal?

If Uncle Sam had entered the league it would be simple enough. He would be told, "we have had our big war. It's your turn. Go and stop this Russian-Chinese foolishness."

Sir Herbert Austin is coming to build Austin automobiles. He tells you they go 88 miles an hour, do 56 miles on one gallon of gasoline.

His "Austin car" has a seven-horsepower engine, weighs 50 pounds, is 9 feet 2 inches long, 3 feet 10 inches wide, will sell for about $500, and Sir Herbert expects it "to be in some way a rival to the Ford."

The Baby Austin may meet other rivals. Walter Chrysler says that Gen. Wood, president of Sears, Roebuck, is starting a small car to sell for $250 or less. If that comes along, it will be interesting, but it will help not hurt the automobile industry in general.

A nation that bought 2,000,000 buggies a year, when it had 500,000,000 population, could easily buy 5,000,000 automobiles and more a year now.

Out of date little boys in my Army are planning an amusing game. The great "coast defense" guns at Sandy Hook will fire real shells at an imaginary "invading fleet."

The shells will go out nine miles to sea.

And there will be soldiers marching up and down on shore.

If an enemy really did come in ships or in hansom cabs, it would receive a rough welcome.

Of course, if the enemy ever comes, it will come in airplanes launched 100 miles off shore, some flying to Washington, D. C., others to New York, to Boston, Cleveland, Chicago, none of them bothering about our "coast defense" pop-guns. That's what makes our Army maneuvers so charmingly ingenious.

The port of New York authority seeks to compile "the seven wonders of the port of New York."

It is a wonderful port, although it could learn something from Seattle, the great harbor inside of San Francisco's Golden Gate, and the bay that unites Oakland and San Francisco and that could easily accommodate all the floating fleets and hydroplanes of the world.

The greatest wonder of the port of New York is not its 900 miles of protected water front, 150 steamship lines, nine trunk railroads, banking or credit facilities.

The real wonder is the patience and industry of the workers that build the bridges, tunnels and skyscrapers.

They are real wonders, and nobody pays any attention to them, except for a little while, when they strike.

Jesse Pomeroy, who has lived 53 years in Charleston prison for murder, including 41 years in solitary confinement will be moved to the Bridge-water Hospital for the Criminal Insane.

He last saw the world outside of prison walls in 1876 and will see electric street cars, automobiles, elevated roads, skyscrapers, all for the first time.

What shall we all see, when we come back, a hundred million years hence, if we do come?

Science says the earth will live, safely inhabitable, for hundreds of millions of years.

What shall we have accomplished in as little as twenty million years, when our civilization will be as old as that of the ants is now?

The German Bremen comes in breaking ocean records shooting mails ahead of a flying machine launched off Fire Island.

The fastest Cunard ship, Mauretania, 20 years old, won't race the Bremen. "But wait until you see our new ship," says the Cunard company. That's what Mussolini says.

ITS ERROR

A man, running after a taxicab, panted to the driver, "How much to the station from here?"

"Fifty cents," replied the driver.

The man continued to run, and having covered another stretch, inquired breathlessly of the driver, "How many now?"

"Seventy-five," retorted the driver. "Ye're runnin' the wrong way."

One thing about those fast going little fliers, when they start turning over on the road they are hard to stop.

Clifford Q. Hootenanny when a youngster developed the reputation of being quite clever in fact, his little witticisms and practical jokes seemed to portend his maturing into a comedian.

When grandma crawled in about 8 o'clock and deposited her false teeth in a water-filled fruit jar, Cliff would occasionally apply mucklage to them, thus showing his lovable, joyous nature, bubbling over with youthful enthusiasm. True, his anecdotes pulled before company could sometimes be traced to patent medicine almanacs, but when he made their orbs protrude with a neat manipulation of the pasteboards his plagiarisms were forgotten.

The final climax came when he juggled three oranges before church meeting one Sunday night.

A salvo of cheers went the air of that quiet village, and next week Cliff packed his other shirt.

The metropolis was calling. If you guys lose track of me—jest keep on eye peeled on the Pantaorpeus circuit," he cautioned his cronies as he hooked the rattler.

It was after the day's work was done some years hence. A group of street sweepers were talking over the current news events.

"Yeh," said one, "this J. Pierpont Organ made a big clean-up on the street the other day."

"Dat's nuttin', we make big clean-ups every day on de street, eh kid?"

Clifford Q. Hootenanny was polishing his shovel with carborundum and for once had nothing to say.

He was fresh to the job, was the youthful looking reporter, and very keen on his work.

He was determined to make good, and no effort was too much for him if it resulted in "copy" for the paper.

Every morning, without fail, he went around to certain places where he knew there was a chance of getting something new, among them being the railway ticket office.

"Anything fresh this morning?" he asked of the clerk one day.

"Yes," replied the clerk.

The reporter whipped out the notebook.

"What is it?" he asked.

"The paint you're leaning against," was the answer.

Poincare Triumph Declared
Feature Of French Loan Vote

Praise For Premier Comes From Public In This Country.
While Briand Shares In Recognition For Parliamentary Victory

Ratification of the agreement for the friendly spirit that traditionally exists between the two nations. "The collection of even a just debt, especially by a wealthy creditor from a less fortunate debtor." It is suggested by the CHARLESTON EVENING POST, "is always a painful place of business. The United States is imposing no injustice upon France in calling for fulfillment of a settlement which involved some extremely liberal concessions from the original terms of the obligation." The Evening Post, however, suggests that the French Premier might have been a bit more sympathetic, as he was entirely logical in his acknowledgment of the American position.

"Fully as significant as this vote was the applause which greeted Poincare as he finished his four-day speech in support of his policy," says the NEW YORK EVENING POST. "The victory he won was largely personal. Just as in 1926, when he was fighting the battle of the franc, he has proved to be the man of the hour. No one else in France could have done what he has done in the face of such strong opposition to ratification. His calm, reasoned and logical presentation of his case, his ceaseless reiteration that any reservation to ratification must be made separately have won the day because of the confidence he has inspired in his countrymen. Even the French Chamber could not contemplate the consequences of ignoring his advice and overthrowing his government."

"From the standpoint of eloquence and dramatic appeal," in the opinion of the MANCHESTER UNION, "the premier's studied argument, and his sharp rebuttals of the fault-finding of his opponents, effective as they were, were eclipsed by his brilliant and unexpected assistance rendered him at the last moment by Aristide Briand. The brief but pointed statements of the Foreign Minister were well suited to disarm opposition, and it is not surprising that, when he finished, the entire Chamber rose to its feet and cheered. And that the motion to postpone ratification until the Young plan was officially accepted and put into operation was readily withdrawn."

"Poincare and Briand did as much for international good will as for their own government and world economies," declares the NEW YORK TIMES, "when they steered the American debate into the channel of ratification. As he has labored, resting from his mighty parliamentary labor, the Premier may feel that he has managed again one of those rare internal political campaigns which contain the essence of statesmanship and world peace. To his eminent Foreign Minister, himself 11 times the head of the Cabinet of the Republic, M. Poincare can turn gratefully for the magnificent skill with which he played on the emotions of the Chamber, and said the word which America was longing to hear. This foremost among the orators of Europe has had many triumphs with the Deputies and in conference with the ablest men of other nations, but not often has his eloquence proved so refreshing to the public of two hemispheres."

On the Poincare analysis of the American position, the TERRIER HAUTE STAR comments: "It is comforting to hear these plain facts told in the French Chamber by a man who must be listened to as an authority, and whose reputation as an uncompromising Frenchman makes any charge of weakness impossible. So much of rhetoric has been spilled on this issue; so many things have been said that were contrary to the record and unfair to America, that we welcome this acknowledgment of the soundness of our position and of the liberality of the terms in which we have defined it. The air will be cleared by the Poincare speech."

"Two cool-headed statements," according to the CHARLOTTE OBSERVER, "have brought France to its senses. ... It was an appeal to the gratitude of the French government that put the French people once more in the mind to cheer for America with a pretty good will." The LOUISVILLE COURIER-JOURNAL recognizes in the incident, evidence that the time for denying is now over, and in this Poincare has won the support of a sizable majority.

"Because war debts make good political arguments and offer opportunities for appeals to sentiment and the pocketbook," remarks the OAKLAND TRIBUNE, "the politicians over there proposed a reasonable settlement. Poincare spoke for the solid thought of his nation, for those who would not countenance a refusal to meet obligations."

A contribution to good will is seen also by the HARTFORD COURANT, which adds: "In view of the attitude which the people of France have taken toward the debts in recent years, the words of M. Briand during the debate will be deeply appreciated in the United States. Although the debts properly involve national sentiment in no way, his statement that 'our gratitude remains unimpaired' is a timely and felicitous reminder of the friendly spirit that traditionally exists between the two nations."

Wilson Hits Two Circuit Clouds

Hack Wilson Helps Put Cubs Back In First Place By Hitting Two Homers

By LEN CONKLIN, International News Service Staff

NEW YORK, July 25.—Instead of being the only outstanding combination of circuit clouds in the big leagues, the Yankees find of Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig is being paced by five other duos in this year's home run derby. The totals of the six sets of home run runs were: Gehrig and O'Doul of the Phillies, 49; Wilson and Hornsby of the Cubs, 45; Ruth and Gehrig, 45; Bottomley and Hater of the Cardinals, 44; Ott and Jackson of the Giants, 44; and Simmons and Fox of the Athletics, 42.

Wilson and Hornsby went on a rampage against the giants yesterday, "Knockout Hack" walloping his 24th and 25th homers and Hornsby contributing his 20th. Their activities enabled the Bruins to snatch an 8 to 7 win from the Giants, who scored all their runs in a sixth-inning outburst. The Cubs regained the league lead, as Pittsburgh lost to Brooklyn again, 6 to 4. Babe Hornsby's two triples helped Lefty Clark outpoint Heinie Meine, the Pirate hurler.

Bill McKenchie resumed command of the St. Louis club under suspicious circumstances. The Cards beating the Phillies 6 to 4, Roettger's home run with the bases full broke up the party. George Sisler's triple with two on stalked the Boston Braves, 5 to 3, 3 triumph over Cincinnati.

Earnshaw Wins Again
With George Earnshaw clicking up his 15th win of the season, the Athletics made it two out of three from Cleveland, 5 to 3.

Scoring three runs in the eighth on five consecutive hits, the Yankees beat Detroit again, 7 to 5. Pennock and Uhle pitched.

Babe Ruth returned to the line-up unexpectedly but failed to make a hit.

Bob Burke, Washington southpaw, won his third game in seven days as the Nats subdued the White Sox, 3 to 2.

The Red Sox, elated fourteen hits and outslugged the Browns, 9 to 7.

ed the part of an ice wagon coming home from a hard day outside the shop of Mr. Sweeney, the popular barber. Why? Because, good as they are, it happens that they are being paced by a club that is better, much better. I admit that Ruth has been a sick man, that Meusel and Gehrig somehow can't hit the ground with a handful of confetti, that Pennock isn't the man he was and that Hoyt has lost everything except his appe-

the since June 26. But having conceded all of this, I fail to see where it proves anything on a club that moves at a 760 pace through the month just concluded.

Macks Look Good
It simply means that, in all the maudlin hysteria over the supposed death of a great club, that another and perhaps better one has risen in its place. It probably would take the Athletics and, even then, it would be toss your coin in hope for the break. Time alone will annoint the Athletics and give them the benediction of greatness. They have everything now except the approval that hastens into the light of day as soon as victory is official. The boys always can be relied upon to approve very heartily of a winner.

First Christians Secure Victory

The First Christians defeated the First Congregational, 10 to 5, in a New Castle Church League game played at the Seventh Ward field on Wednesday night.

Seven errors by the Congregationals allowed the Christians to score many runs. Simmons and Ryan both pitched good baseball. The First Christians kicked in with three errors. Steinbrink featured the game with a home run drive. Rogovin had a triple, and Sheets, H. Ryan and Lewis had doubles.

Pittsburgh Tumbles Into Second Place As Result Of Their Defeat

PITTSBURGH, July 25.—The Pirates tumbled into second place yesterday when Brooklyn took the second game of their Forbes Field series 6-4. Each team made 10 hits but Brooklyn made their wallop count for runs. Clark of Brooklyn had a delivery that was difficult to solve when Pirates had runners on the paths. Boro A. C. Wins From Post Office

Lutz, Post Office Catcher Is Knocked Unconscious Ending Game In Fifth Inning

The Boro A. C. walloped the Post Office team 21 to 0, in a City-County League game, played at the Boro field on Wednesday night. The game was halted in the fifth due to a very unfortunate accident when Dunkerly in trying to stretch his hit into a home run, crashed into Lutz, the Mail Carriers' catcher and knocked him unconscious.

There were but two out in the first of the fifth when the accident occurred. The Boro team went wild in the first five innings and scored a total of twenty-one runs on seventeen hits, and two errors. Wilson, and Roberts essayed to pitch for the Mail Carriers, but were met with a barrage of hits. Sumner and Duncan on the knoll for the Boro team held the Post Office to two hits.

The Boro A. C. team would like to schedule games with the Church League teams, and others. For games call 954-R 13, and ask for W. G. Swisher, manager.

Don't expect comfort from trucks . . . or to carry girders in a roadster

Neither must you expect all the good qualities of motor oil to be found in oil made from a single kind of crude oil. The newest idea in motor oil for present day high-compression, high-speed motors, is a skillful blend made from two kinds of crude oil . . . one with a paraffine base, the other a naphthene base.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

By ED. FRITZ

Jackie Fields will make an effort to wrest the welterweight title from the veteran Joe Dundee in a 15-round bout at Detroit tonight. Neither has had any difficulty making the weight. Several experts have predicted that Fields will win the title but some others believe that Joe is still tricky and good enough to retain his crown.

Another report that is now on the rounds is to the effect that F. H. Powles has asked the Pennsylvania boxing commission to recognize Billy Jones as Tommy Loggins' successor if Tommy abandons the light-heavyweight title. Jones is ranked sixth best world light-heavyweight for 1929 and as a result of 1929 battles will be ranked higher.

Rabbit Maranville, a storm petrel of baseball and one who has had a varied career with different teams, has refused to act as manager of the Boston Braves. Emil Fuchs, president of the Braves, refused to give Maranville a two-year contract. Rabbit is playing shortstop.

Greasy Neal, St. Louis, has been sent to Rochester of the International league, according to President Sam Breaden. He has been coaching and the shift came along with the move that sent Billy Southworth to Rochester as manager and made Bill McKechnie manager of the Cardinals.

Murray Giltitz, New York heavy-weight, and Billy Jones, Philadelphia, his opponent, will arrive here tomorrow and resume training at the gymnasium of Jimmie Dime. The workouts will be public. More than $1,000 worth of reservations have already been sold for Monday night's fight.

Johnny Van Ryn and Wilmer Allison set the French to worry yesterday when at Paris, when the Americans defeated Karl Kozeluh, world's ranking professional, and Martin Fina. Henri Cochet and Jean Borotra, veterans, have been ordered to pair together in doubles against the Yanks.

Trade Commission Prepares Query For Retailers

Nation Wide Investigation Of Chain Stores To Be Made

By ARTHUR WIMER,
Special News Correspondent
WASHINGTON, D. C., July 24.— Federal Trade Commission is preparing a new schedule of questions which will be sent to the retailers of Pennsylvania in connection with its nationwide chain-store investigation.
The commission announces.
Wholesale dealers, manufacturers, and chain-store organizations of Pennsylvania have been surveyed both by interview and question schedule in an effort to ascertain the methods of competition obtaining. Many of the more important companies approached have cooperated actively with the commission. However, considerably correspondence has been necessary in order to thoroughly acquaint the smaller dealers with what is desired in the dealer's schedule.

The proposed questionnaire which will be sent to the retailers of the State will, it is hoped, throw new light on the chain-store situation from the retailer's point of view. Meanwhile, the schedule returns already received from the chain-stores and dealers are now in process of analysis and tabulation.

Weight Scales In Pittsburgh Are Found Not True

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, July 24.—Somebody is always taking the joy out of life for members of the I-Am-Reducing club.

Walking about town with his fifty pound weights, testing penny scales, James P. Bailey, chief of the city bureau of weights and measures, discovered that most of them weighed light, some as much as ten pounds.
The more the scales were off, on the light side, the more their popularity, Bailey found.

From now on, the truth will be told about the success of fad diets, because Bailey's deputies will place a red tag on each scale found to be inaccurate. If the correction is not made within ten days, the weights chief intimated, the scales may be confiscated.
